MARTIN'S TALKS & WORKSHOPS

BUILDING HUMAN CONNECTION IN THE ALGORITHMIC AGE

In a culture dominated by screens, speed and fragmented attention, human connection has become both more difficult and more valuable. In this talk, your audience will:

- Rethink the difference between tech-mediated communication and true belonging
- See how presence and shared experience creates stronger teams, communities and ideas
- Learn practical ways to foster deeper dialogue and more meaningful relationships

CHOOSING THE UNCONVENTIONAL LIFE

Convention, circumstance and inherited expectation shape our lives long before we consciously choose to accept these things. In this talk, your audience will:

- Understand the "default settings" handed down by culture, technology, and social pressure
- Identify the implicit and misunderstood forces pulling us toward conformity
- Leave with greater clarity and confidence to choose a more intentional path

THE RADICAL POWER OF PAYING ATTENTION

The breakneck pace of modern culture erodes space for reflection and originality, but slowing down can create a path to better thinking, creativity, and personal growth. In this talk, your audience will:

- Gain practical tools for cultivating attention, reflection, and clearer thinking
- Reframe patience as an under-leveraged creative and intellectual advantage
- Recognize how speed and distraction diminish creativity and depth
